THE PEAK STAFF DEDICATES THE 2000 ANNUAL TO TWO SHINING STARS

Every year the Peak Staff dedicates the yearbook to a member or members of the faculty here at Tazewell High School. This year, the Staff chose two worthy individuals who sometimes may go unnoticed. Mr. James French and Mrs. Raejean Harman head the music department at Tazewell High. They both spend countless hours working at or for the school. Because of their loving support and encouragement, the Peak Staff is proud to dedicate the 2000 Annual to Mr. French and Mrs. Harman.

Mr. French graduated from Graham High School and went on to attend Elon College. He decided to go into music education because he found it fun and rewarding. Before arriving at Tazewell, Mr. French taught and played in several different ensembles. He hopes that the Tazewell High Marching Band will continue to be "one of the finest bands around."

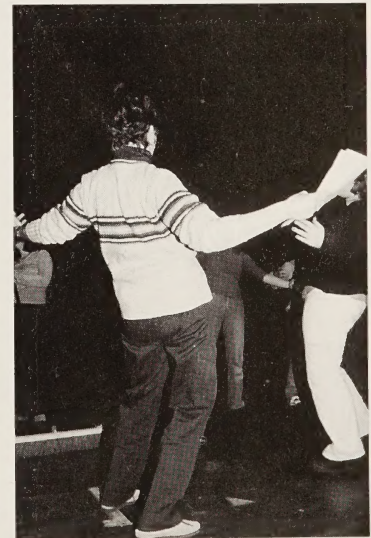

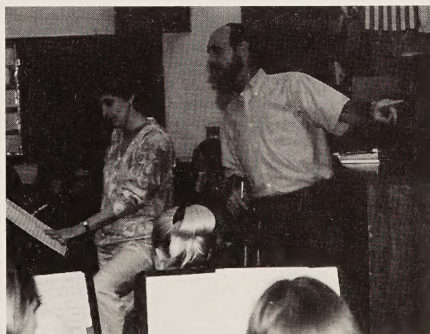

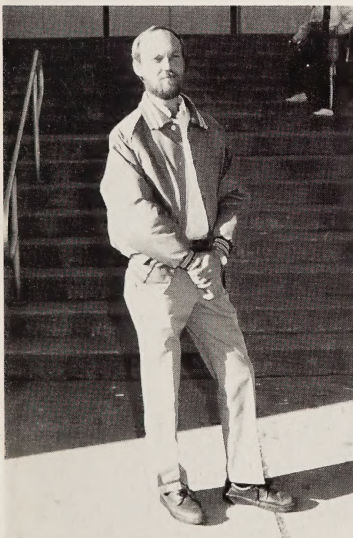

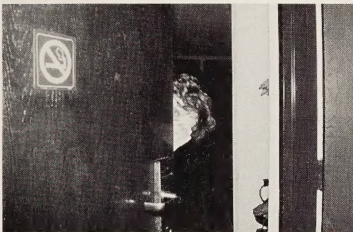

"French" and "The Mule", as they are respectively known to band students, are irreplaceable partners in the music department. Both have made such dramatic contributions to the band and Tazewell High School that their presence is always felt in the halls of the school, even when they are not seen.

Mrs. Raejean Harman went to Bluefield High School and graduated from Concord College. Her elementary music teacher and her junior high school band director inspired her to go into music education. She taught elementary art before coming to Tazewell. She hopes that the Tazewell High Marching Band will capture the Virginia Honors Band title for the third year in a row.

Every summer, they dedicate most of their time to preparing the half-time show for the football season. Both sacrifice endless hours in order to help get the band where it needs to be. Whether it is staying up all night figuring out what formation fits best in the show or driving the All Regional participants down to Pulaski High School, Mr. French and Mrs. Harman are always there to support the students.

For band students, the two names are inseparable from each other. The band affectionately addresses their director informally as "French" and Mrs. Harman is fondly called "The Mule" because she is always hard at work for the band. They can be seen fixing instruments, discussing a piece of music, or working on the crossword puzzle in the newspaper. Whenever or whatever they are doing, neither one is too busy to sit down and talk to students about school, the future, or anything in between.

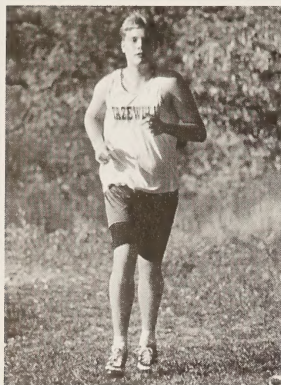

No matter what the circumstances, both are ready to volunteer whenever possible. Because of their devotion and hard work, Mr. French and Mrs. Harman are deeply appreciated by students and faculty alike. Thank you, Mr. French and Mrs. Harman!

THE TAZEWELL HIGH SCHOOL EXPERIENCE:

Jeremy, the running star.

Brittani Osborne, Miss THS.

"Do I have to be here?"

These basketball girls share great times and many laughs.

Donnie concentrates on the notes.

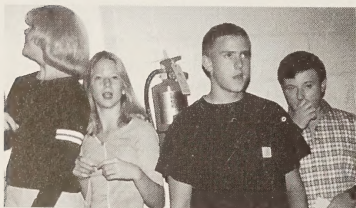

Sam's mighty golf swing.

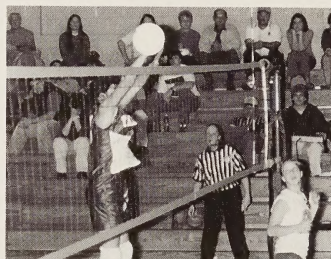

These golf stars take the spotlight.

Dr. G. is always the supporter.

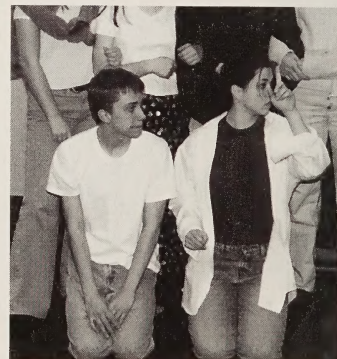

"Did I miss something?"

What a block!

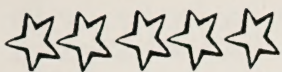

...and he falls reaching for the first down.

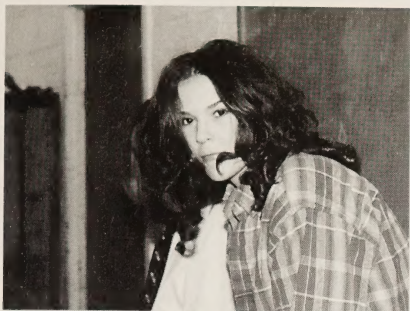

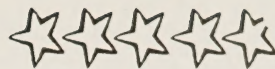

Me! I'll do it!

JOURNEY

"Why are you so surprised?"

The determined look of a band members.

Oh yeah, they look real busy.

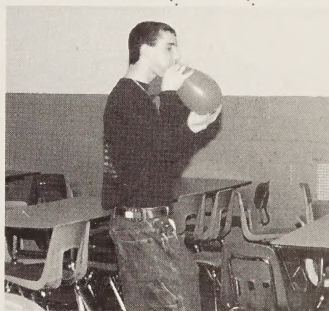

Todd tries to make a quick escape.

The latest fashion, Christmas is "in" this year.

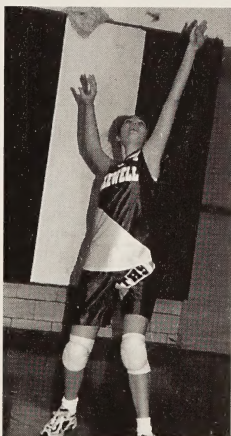

Allison really wants this shot.

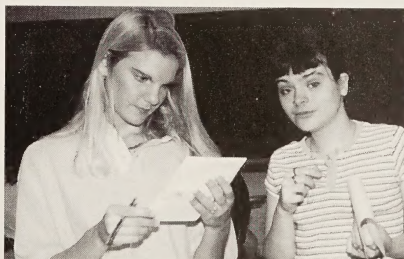

Jonathan looks a little light-headed.

Despite the cold, cheerleaders still have a smile on their faces.

Ready, aim, fire!

Seniors Angela and Rebecca try to look busy.

Sorry Mindy, no one gets a break from band.

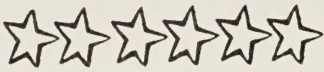

"You look too clean. How about some paint?"

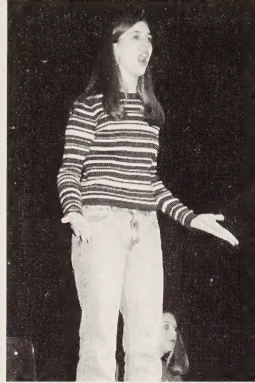

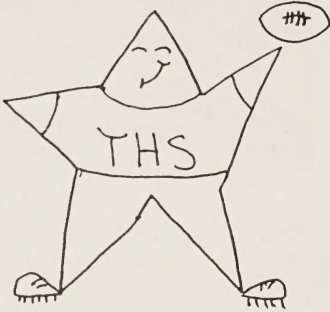

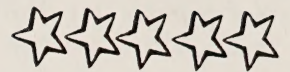

"Maybe if we're really quiet we can make a run for it."

THROUGH

Sarah pours on the emotion during the One Act play.

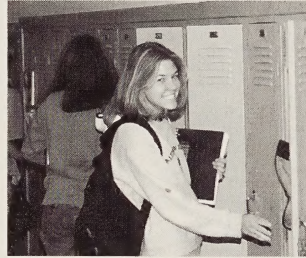

Everything sounds so wonderful together.

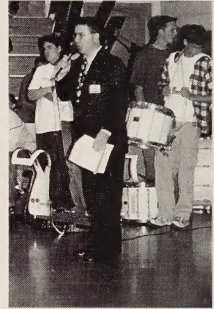

Clifford, next president? Maybe not.

"Finally, school's over!"

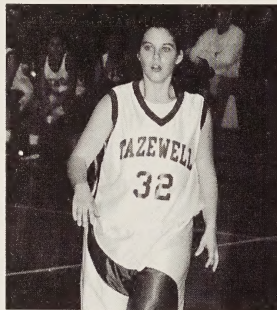

She was prepared for that picture. What a smile.

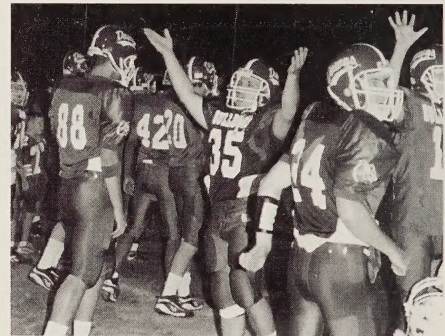

"Let's get ready to rumble!"

Nothing like talking over a cool soda.

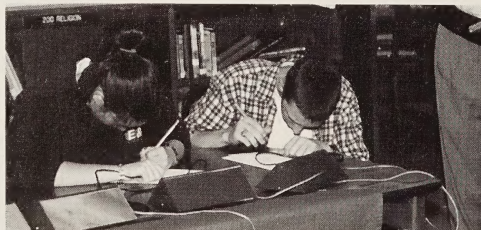

Heather's walk of satisfaction.

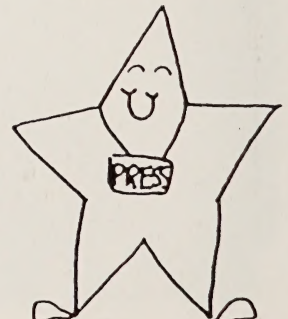

Football players love to pump up an enthusiastic crowd.

She looks too relaxed to be in class.

Think, think. Mindy and Levi search for the answer.

THE STARS

Drew draws back...

The Bulldog battlefield.

This duo is going places.

Jeremy escorts Veronica at Homecoming.

Smash that ball into the ground!

Meow. Hisssss.

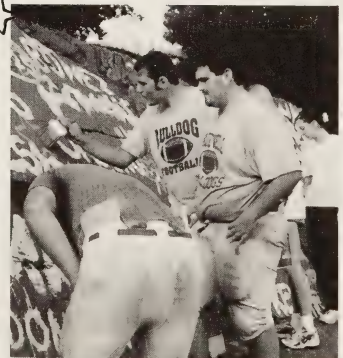

These flutes really break it down.

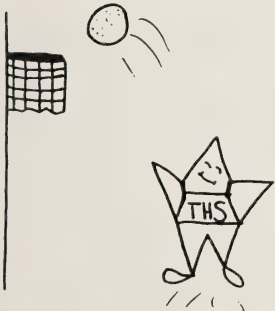

This is the way a golfer runs.

Tick, tick, tick...the deadlines are coming!

Painting the rock means a lot to these Seniors.

INTERGALACTIC TRAVEL

Smiling, shining, happy faces brighten the hallway scene.

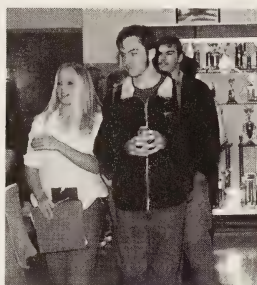

Hollis tries to distract Mrs. Poskas from Hall Security duty.

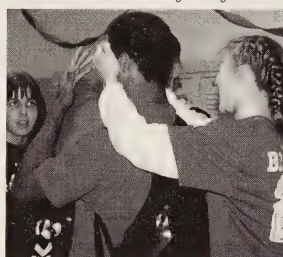

"Wait until Mrs. Moss looks under her desk."

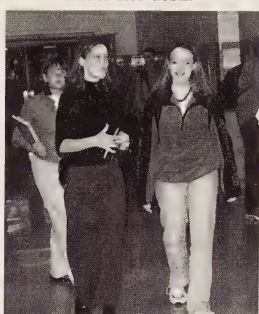

You can do your best work when your stomach's not growling.

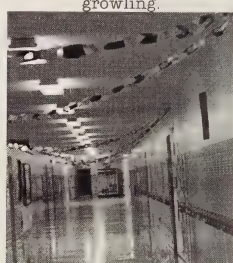

"You should try my hairdresser."

"Okay, where's the pinata?"

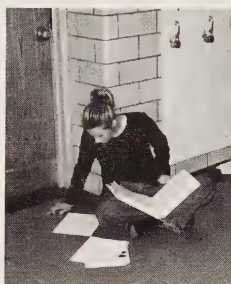

Nothing like a stroll down the hallowed halls of THS.

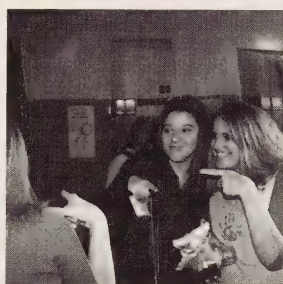

Bulldog Pride makes the hallways exciting.

"So you think you have what it takes to be a wrestler."

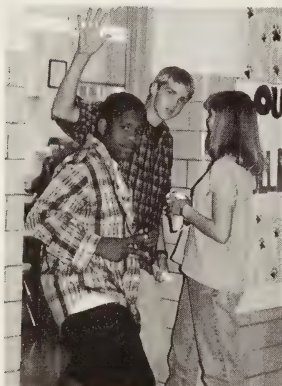

"I know that last page is around here somewhere."

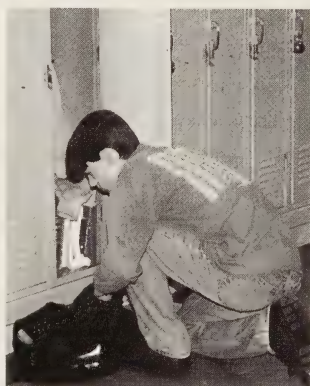

"Are you Snow White or the Wicked Witch?"

"Those darn paparazzi!"

"Wuz sup?"

"Now, what else do I have for homework?"

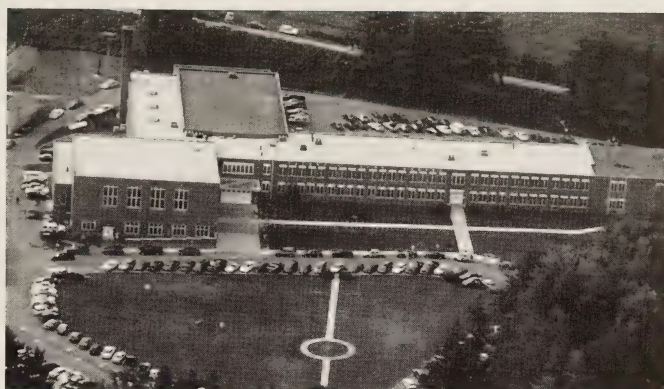

Larry, Curly, and Moe.

"I know it's in here...I think?"

LIMITS OF OUTER SPACE

Announcing our presence to the world.

THE PEAK overlooks T.H.S.

Lost in space.

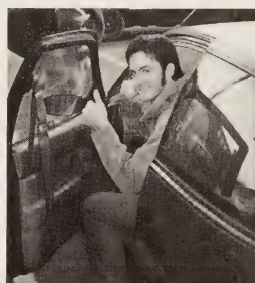

"One small step for man, one giant leap for mankind!"

"We have lift-off."

Headed for "outer" space.

Seth's space craft, "THE GEO OF DOOM."

The practice field is not just for sports.

The exciting part of the T.H.S. campus.

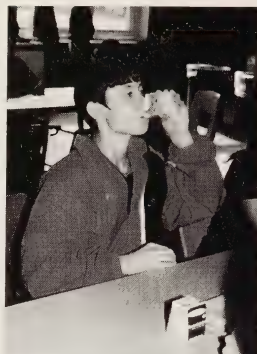

"Waiting for a taxi?"

THE MILKY WAY

Food for thought.

"That tang sure looks good."

Another successful meal in the cafeteria.

Say cheese for the camera.

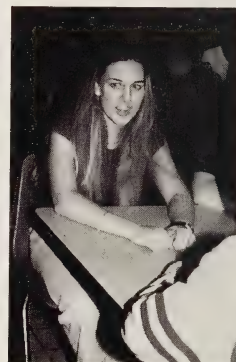

Everything is easier when you have brain food.

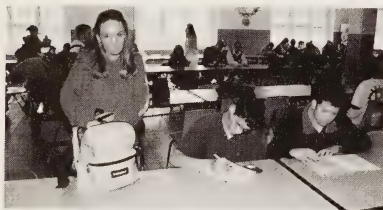

"What did you say your mom packed again?"

Not only is lunch a time for food but a time for catching up.

"Talking satisfies my appetite."

"Am I missing something?"

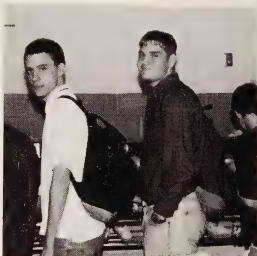

"I've run out of things to say. Is lunch over yet?"

"This seems like a good place to sleep."

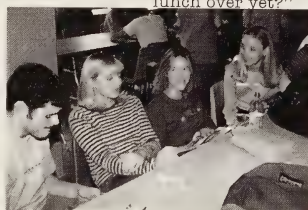

All the attention is taken away from the meal.

"I can hear my stomach."

Smile, we're having pizza.

BLACK HOLES OF T.H.S. SPACE

"How do you work these things?"

"From this angle, it's not messy."

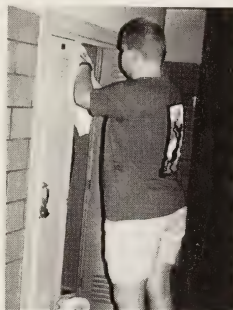

"Don't look, Mr. Baker, I have to kick it!"

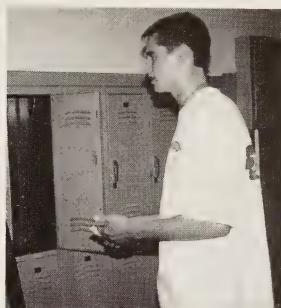

Lockers also serve as social meeting places.

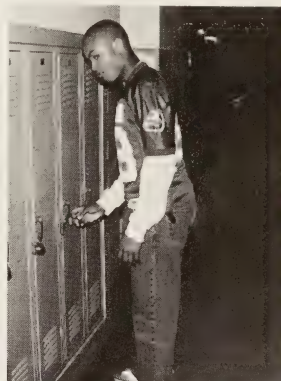

"What else do I need for class?"

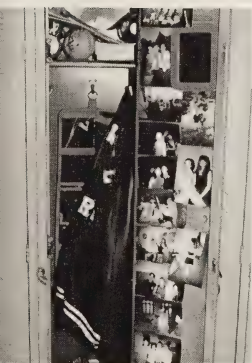

"What else is in here?"

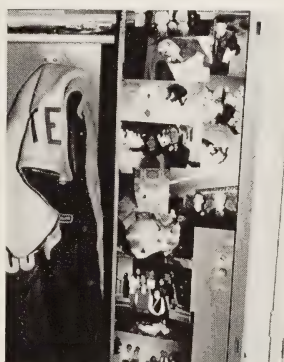

"Wow! This locker is empty!"

"Of course this is my locker."

Lockers reflect students' personalities.

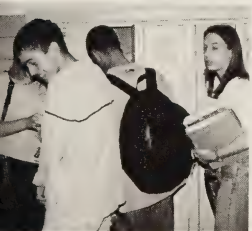

A locker is "home away from home."

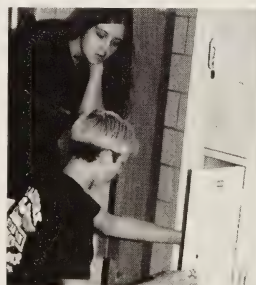

"I'm sure I put it in here."

Cheerleaders show spirit by decorating lockers.

Who knows what's going on at this locker conference?

"I can't fit anything else in here."

"Is there a faster way to open these things?"

"It's not that messy!"

FRIENDS ARE THE

Even on Grunge Day, true friends get close.

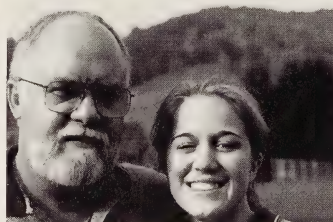

These friends always stick together, even after a rough day of band practice.

Veronica loves all of her guy friends.

Future members of Kiss?

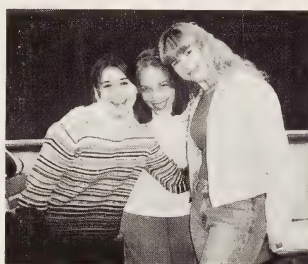

Teachers and students can be friends, too.

"Brandy, will you please listen to me?"

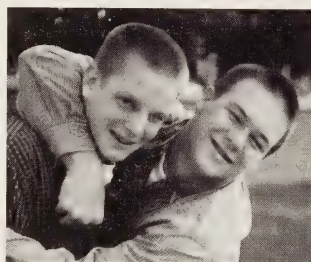

These twins share friends.

Three amigas.

Christmas hippies!

"Give me a hug!"

Friends don't always have to show their emotions; sometimes you just know.

Friends are there to lean on.

Friends make you smile.

FRIENDS FOREVER

STARBURSTS OF LIFE

Jeremy likes being their friend.

Friendly smiles can help get you through a day.

Catching up over breakfast.

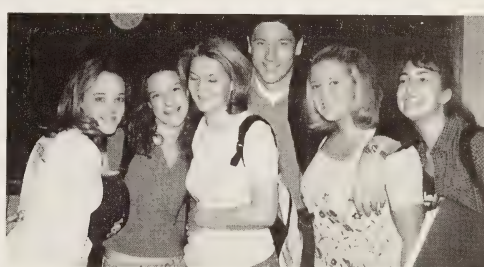

"There's always room for one more!"

COSMIC FILLING STATIONS

"Let me see, what do I want?"

The presence of vending machines and the sight of students snacking in class are recent additions to the T.H.S. scene. On a monthly basis the snack and drink machines bring in about $350 in profit to the school. These funds are used for necessities and materials that benefit T.H.S. but are not covered in the school budget.

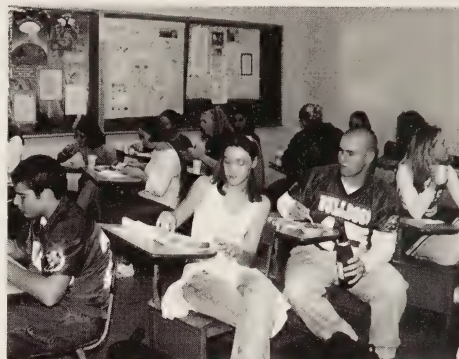

"This is what gets me through my day."

Students say that a quick snack "hits the spot" to keep them going during the day.

They don't seem to mind paying the prices for the food they want. Their only complaints are that the machines have an annoying habit of failing to let go of purchased items, and that a desperate hunger attack can make you tardy!

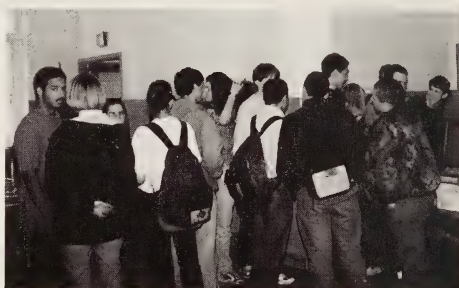

Jamie and Travis take on the epic battle of the snack that won't fall.

"Who says we need snack machines?"

"I wish they'd hurry."

It doesn't appear that the snack machines have replaced lunch; we're hungry ALL the time!

Amanda looks refreshed already!

The Snack Machine Man is a welcome sight anytime!

"So many choices, so little money."

JUST A FEW OF OUR OWN SHINING STARS

YEARBOOK EDITOR

ARTIST

As Editor of The Peak 2000, Mindy Scott has been an outstanding example of dedication to the job. Advisor Mrs. McPherson comments, "In my eleven years with the Annual Staff, no staff member has made more of a contribution that Mindy has. She has worked before school, during her lunch period, and on snow days to ensure the book's completion on time. I salute her creativity, her assistance to other staff members, and above all her acceptance of the full responsibility required of an editor. This book, and all who enjoy it, owe much appreciation to Mindy."

ALL-STATE CHORISTER

Several students (pictured elsewhere) earned recognition this year as members of the All-Regional Choir. One T.H.S. student, however, was recognized beyond that level. By excelling in a choral audition process, Donnie Neal was named first alternate for Virginia's All-State Chorus. The Green T Singers are proud to have Donnie represent them at the state level.

STUDENTS OF THE MONTH

Popular and talented senior Brandon Viney added to his resume when his drawing of a Tazewell historical scene was singled out for honors in competition. Brandon's artwork will be displayed by the Tazewell County Historical Society.

Tazewell County Schools honor one student per month as "Service Learner of the Month." T.H.S. is proud to have had three of these honorees during the 1999 - 2000 school year. They are Theresa Gates, Travis Calhoun, and Lindsey Havens.

MARKETING COMPETITORS

Students in Fundamentals of Marketing participated in District competition. Leslie Beavers, Sara Madison, and Matthew Robinette were winners for Tazewell High.

Cary Altizer and Jonathan Sheets will represent T.H.S. in State Marketing Competition. They lead the list of Tazewell High students who took eleven of twelve award spots at district marketing competition.

T.H.S. Alma Mater

Where mountains stand so boldly,
Where skies are always bright,
Our Alma Mater lifts her head and sings her strength and might.

We lift our eyes unto the hills that shelter Tazewell High.
They give us strength to love and serve that dear old school of mine.

O Tazewell High, we love thee,
our Alma Mater dear,
For you we stand and sing our song of praise for all to hear.

We love thee, Tazewell High School,
Your light forever shines. It shines to guide
and keep me near that dear old school of mine.

T.H.S. Fight Song

It's Tazewell High School, it's Tazewell High School,
The pride of every student here,
Come on, you old grads, come join us young lads,
It's Tazewell High School now we cheer, Rah,
Rah!
Now is the time, boys, to make a big noise,
No matter what the people say,
For there is none to fear, the gang's all here,
So hail to Tazewell High School,
hail!

Tradition, and the symbols which represent it, are a significant aspect of the T.H.S. experience. Loyalty to Tazewell High tradition is a source of pride within the school and community.

No student leaves these halls without having heard the Alma Mater and the Fight Song performed numerous times.

The Alma Mater, written by a T.H.S. student over fifty years ago, is an especially beloved possession of our students and alumni. Its performance at graduation is an emotional moment for all.

Another symbol through many years has been the Tazewell High School Seal. The Seal, proudly displayed in the school lobby and auditorium, and seen on various publications representing the school, depicts the overlooking Peak and the inspiring words, "I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills. . ." This same mountain summit gives a name to the T.H.S. annual.

Representing T.H.S. in a less solemn manner is the Bulldog whose Dawg nickname and pawprints inspire enthusiasm, especially for our athletic contests. From the Alma Mater to the Dawg, T.H.S. honors its traditions and takes pride in its symbols of school unity.

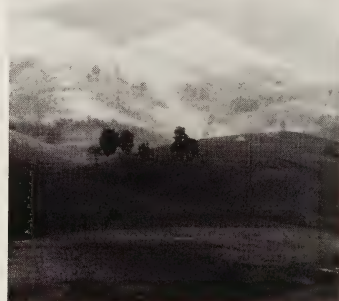

The Rock: an ongoing tradition.

The Bulldog is everywhere.

The Tazewell High School Seal.

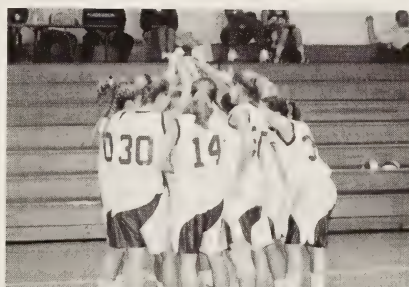

The Peak overlooks and inspires us.

The Tazewell High Cheer Team made many changes this year. They helped to bring back much-needed spirit in the school and community. These ladies cheered all year, not just one season, and they did much more than cheer. They always kept the school, stadium, and the gym decorated. The cheerleaders raised their own money by having a carwash. They worked hard to raise money for charity by selling spirit links. They took time to provide a cheerleading camp for middle school and elementary students. The girls volunteered their time at the Heritage Hall, the Science Center, and at the elementary school. In their busy schedule they put together a prize-winning float. These ladies are really All-American Cheerleaders.

Both the Boys' and Girls' Teams advanced to the Region IV championship. The boys finished 3rd which was high enough to advance them to the State meet. The boys faired well at State.

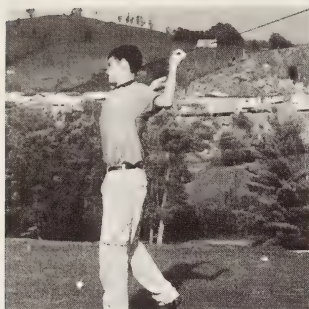

The THS golf team had an unexpectedly good season. Mr. Hatfield took over the position of coach this year. Led by seniors Thomas Peery, Sam Cecil, Ross Quillen, Lindsey Havens, and junior Carol Green the Dawgs took 2nd place in the Southwest District. # STARRING IN WINTER SPORTS

BASKETBALL

The 1999 - 2000 Basketball squad had a somewhat disappointing season in terms of win/loss record. Finishing at 4-16, the coach and players were nonetheless proud of their spirit, effort, and improvement throughout the season. This team was handicapped by lack of depth; with only eight players on the squad, exciting games were lost in the fourth quarter with the lack of "fresh legs" to send in. Coach Duncan remained complimentary of the team's toughness in "hanging in there" with some tough opponents. All-District honors went to Isaac Cecil (2nd Team), and to Honorable Mentions Todd Brown, Jesse McDonald, and Ryan Miller.

CHEERLEADING

This year's Cheerleading team was the first competitive squad ever for T.H.S. The All-American squad were District and Regional champs and advanced to State competition. The Cheer Team also reached out this year to the school and community, supporting sports year-round and performing service projects each month. T.H.S. is proud of the efforts of this team.

VOLLEYBALL

T.H.S. Volleyball experienced a year in transition with new coaches Adam Lallande for the Varsity and Margaret Kallander for the J.V. A hard-working varsity squad had difficulty coming up with wins, but completed a 5 - 6 season. Amanda Duty and Carol Green were named to All-District teams. Providing hopeful expectations for next year was a J.V. squad which won the District Tournament to become SWD champions.

WRESTLING

Inexperience was Bulldog Wrestling's greatest opponent during 1999-2000. Over half of the team consisted of first-time wrestlers. Despite this disadvantage, several seasoned grapplers as well as one newcomer experienced winning seasons, while all team members improved as the season progressed. Weeks of hard work paid off when nine of twelve wrestlers placed at Southwest District competition to advance to Regionals. Those All-District wrestlers were 2nd place medallists Lance Hurley, Rals Abrahams, and Seth Henshaw; 3rd place Matthew Robinette and Levi Neal; and 4th place Eric Sheppard, Leigh McGrady, James White, and Brandon Sheets.

INDOOR TRACK

Indoor Track, in only its second season here, met with impressive success this year. Meets were held at VMI and Va Tech, with the regional "indoor" meet held outdoors in Abingdon. The boys' team were regional champs. Qualifying for the state meet were: S. Neel, C. Rinehart, A. Bland, A. Householder, A. Duty, As. Wyatt, E. Lambert, J. Vance, L. Dowdy, B. Boothe, J. Thompson, B. Viney, J. McDonald, S. Hambrick, D. McClure, J. Graham, B. Poskas, J. Neel, A. Frye, S. Lutz, D. Barrett, and C. Blankenship.

ALL STAR

Beware! These dawgs bite!

"We're letting Coach take care of it."

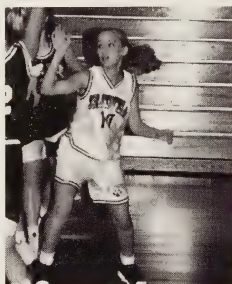

Sara wants to put this one up.

Is it tee time yet?

"What goes up..."

"First you have to get by me!"

"I'm sure there's a finish line somewhere."

Two points? Count on it!

"Sure wish they'd give me a helmet."

"Are you taking this ball with you or not?"

Josh takes a turn at calling the signals.

"They won't force a fumble on me!"

"Mama said there'd be days like this."

Dawg runners lead the pack.

"Run, Jesse, run!"

"Here's the plan, guys."

Bulldog spirit: coming together after a win.

"Move over, Tiger; I'm playing through."

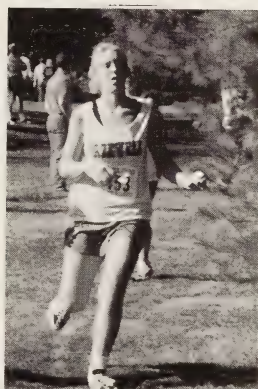

Carrie looks for someone to get open.

*****
ACTION*****

Different sports; same look of concentration.

"Please no more hills!"

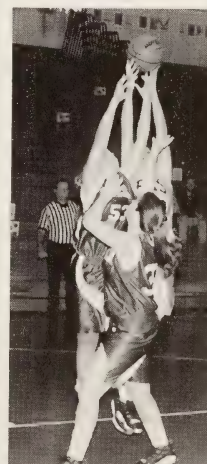

Amanda H. and Amanda D. are both on the move.

J.V. "D" gets set.

Rob clears a path.

Go for the take-away!

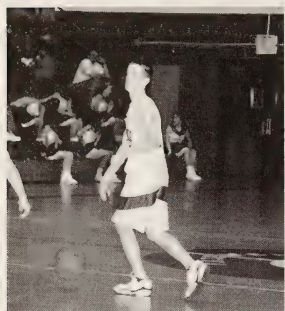

Up and in!

THE STARS ARE OUT

"Come back, ball!"

Follow through!

Seth plays Twister.

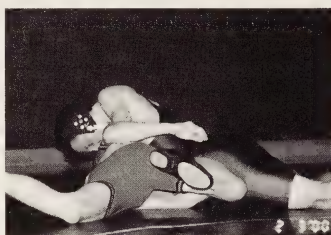

"Take THAT!"

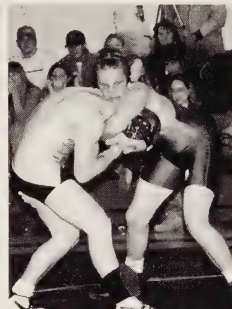

Ready!

"Are we coordinated or what?"

Levi puts the squeeze on.

Joe locks up a head.

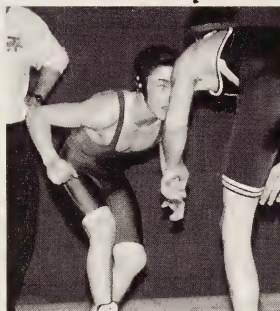

"Go, Bulldogs!"

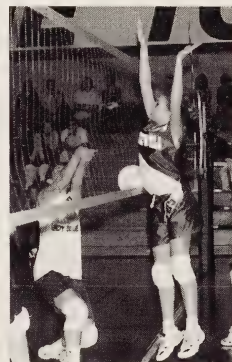

"What? Where?"

On the way to two points!

"He may be taller, but I'm meaner!"

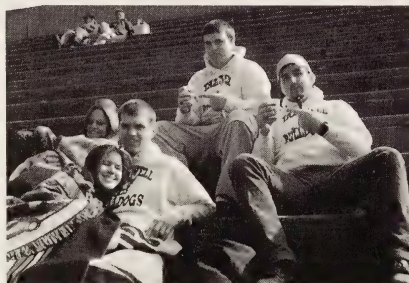

Hanna's happy to help out!

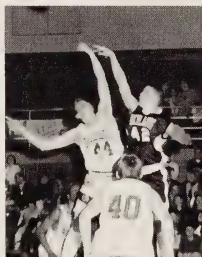

It's in there!

Jenifer's always full of CHEER!

"Get warm anyway you can! (We thought this was INDOOR track, Coach!)"

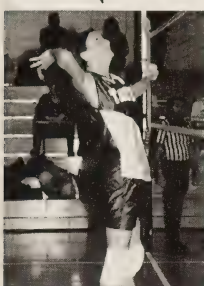

Todd stretches to the limit.

Coach Keene gives hands-on instruction.

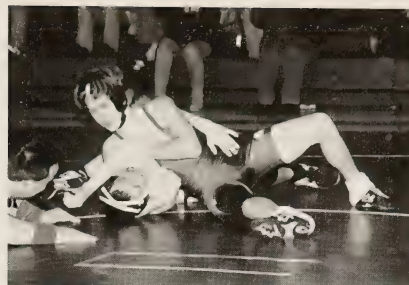

Allison smacks one!

Jesse's headed downcourt.

Gotta be on your toes for this sport!

Rals gets six.

Wow! Jake can touch his toes!

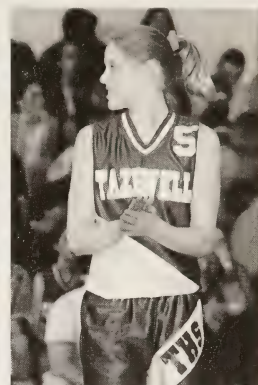

Headed home after a night's cheering.

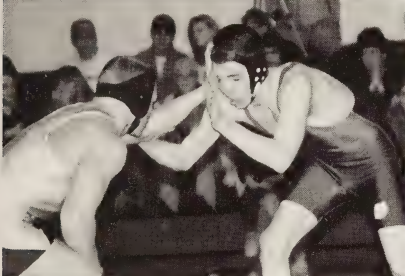

Up and over!

Ryan anticipates the rebound.

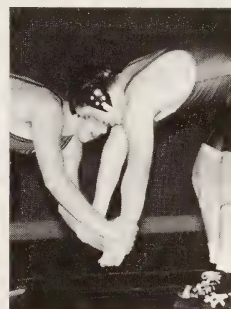

"Way to go, team!"

OUCH!

"I'm done - take it!"

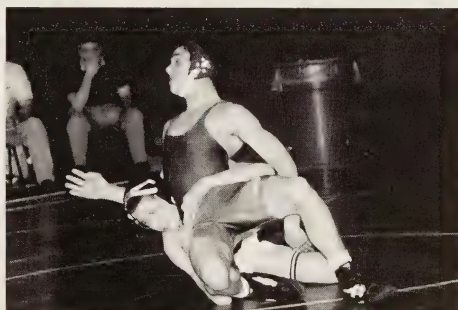

"You're not draggin' me down!"

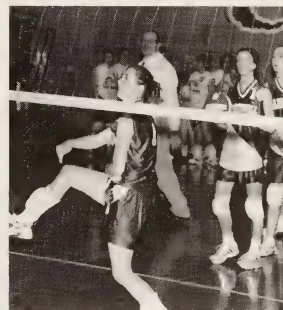

Making it look easy.

Look - up the the sky!

Will won't tumble for this guy.

"My mom taught me this dance step."

HELP!

IN ATHLETIC ACTION

CATCH A FALLING

"Catch a star?...I just want to catch a man!"

Maybe the answer will fall out of the sky.

Hair...don't fall!

Don't fall back!

"I wish I would catch a falling star."

Don't drop me!

"You know, if we fall, we won't land on our feet!"

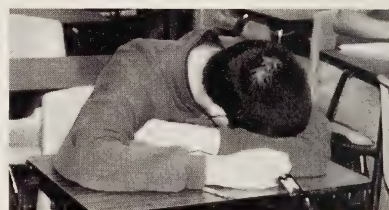

Catch that ball!

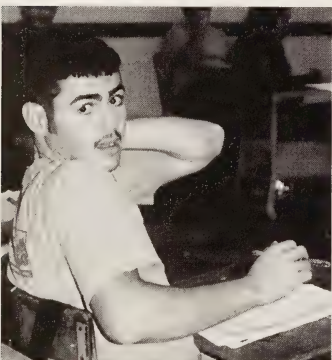

"Please help me; I'm falling!"

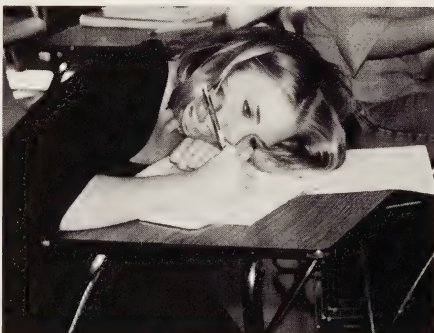

Catch a hint.

Just catching a nap.

Trying to catch some attention?

Don't fall asleep!

I hope my grade doesn't fall.

BLASTING INTO THE NEW MILLENIUM

WHAT'S NEW AT T.H.S.

A new monument on the front campus pays respect to the Class of '66.

Mrs. Snow was named the area's first female Athletic Director.

New teachers share ideas.

T.H.S. added three new teachers this year. Miss Thomas and Mrs. McDaniel joined the Business Department, while Mrs. Hankins is a new math teacher.

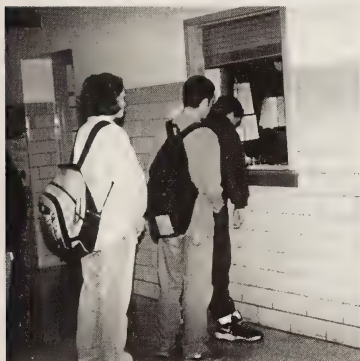

T.H.S. students are generally relaxed despite nationwide security concerns.

Students show widely mixed reactions to the issue of school safety. A survey by this year's Bulldog staff shows that while some believe there should be metal detectors and greater security, others feel reasonably safe with current situations, and still others find that security is overdone. The variety of opinion reflects the complexity of this issue for the new millennium.

BULLDOG PRIDE

Morning line at the check-in window.

Reflecting community and parental concern over school safety, T.H.S. is keeping closer watch over entry and departure from the building. Visitors are directed from a faculty security desk to a check in window where they receive guest tags. All school system employees also wear i.d. tags. T.H.S. joins schools across the country in the difficult attempt to enhance security without losing their atmosphere of community.

School spirit had a major revival this year. This revival has been brought on by the hopes of good sports seasons and by the hard work of the All-American Cheerleaders.

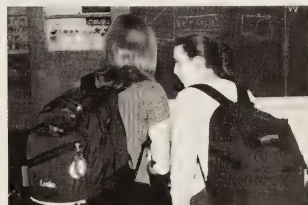

Students utilize updated technology.

"Will anyone notice if we trade name tags?"

Mrs. Davis tends to business while monitoring the school entrance.

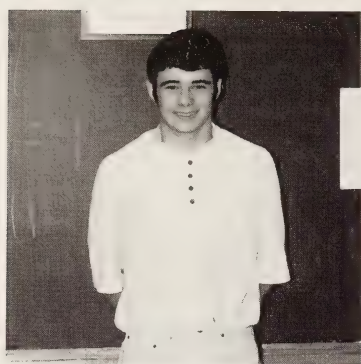

"Does your backpack really weigh 44 pounds?"

The debate over a 6 or 7 period school day became an issue this year. At yearbook press time it was uncertain what schedule would be followed for 2000-01.

T.H.S. continues to move forward in the technology field. Room 115 was equipped with new computers and the library also received new hardware.

The Annual Staff Explores...

The F I N A L F R O N T I E R

Todd and Jeremy help out (?) in the boiler room.

"Hey, Brandy, how do these lights work?"
(Backstage in the auditorium.)

Carr and Liz snoop around in the spotlight/storage room.

Many of the students that walk the halls of Tazewell High don't know of the many nooks and crannies that T.H.S. hides. For instance, Glenn's office! Who knew that Glenn had an office? The reason is that it is in the boiler room, off from the cafeteria. The annual staff explored these little-known cubbyholes in order to share them with you.

"This custodians' closet doesn't smell too great!"

Matt and Will inspect o.j. in the kitchen cooler.

"Just thought we'd do a little dusting in Glenn's office."

Kerry and Megan hang out on the roof.

Taping stand in the gym provides quite a view unless you're scared of heights.

Jennifer and Tabitha aren't scared off by our old, SLOW elevator.

Todd explains the Interact/Prom

There's lots of "stuff" in

This classroom is full of current seniors.

This play never made it to Broadway.

Do these former cheerleaders still have the spirit?

Well, at least the glasses and braces came off.

Looks like they were having fun even then.

The Power of Ideas.

It's our country's most valuable resource. A power that's fueled by learning. That's why it's important for us all to be active in our children's education, and our own. After all, education challenges us to think for ourselves. And that gives us the power to see things in a new light.

TO: LESLIE

Leslie Davis, hair of red,
In these few words our thoughts are said -

The years come and then they go,
It's been a joy to watch you grow.
From baby to child to woman grown,
We smile at all the good times we've known.
From your first cry to your first reach,
To your first steps upon the beach.
From those first words that you said,
To those first foods that you were fed.
From music to dance to sports and such,
We shall remember and treasure so much.

As you go off to seek your life,
We wish it good , without strife.
Take with you your parents' love -
It will, with the help of God above,
Give you the peace and strength you'll need,
For everyday and every deed.

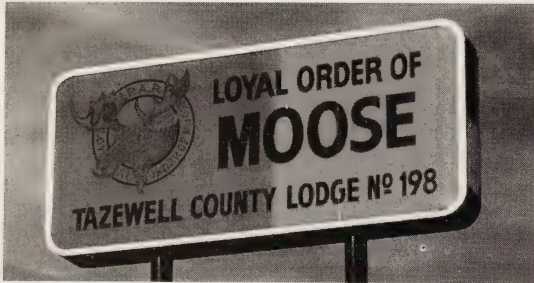

Let us say, for always, clear and loud -
Of you, dear daughter, we remain forever PROUD!

All our love,
Dad & Mom

Our Sign Says It All.

Our big red sign has been a strong symbol of banking for Virginians and a familiar sight to our area for a long time. We're proud of being a part of the oldest bank building operation in Virginia, and of continuing a community bank with local decision and loan officer management. We think that's important because it gives us a unique, very personal understanding of the financial needs of the people we serve. Take a good look at our sign. We're proud of what it says about us and what it means for our community.

Roger Clemens helps the New York Yankees beat the Atlanta Braves in four games to win the 1999 World Series.

The Dallas Stars capture the Stanley Cup with Brett Hull's game-winning goal in triple overtime.

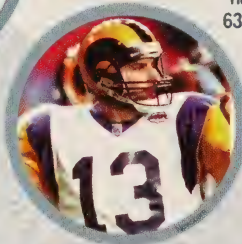

In sports, it was a year for firsts. Forty million viewers tuned in to watch the U.S. Women's Soccer Team triumph over China and Tiger Woods win six straight PGA tournaments. The Dallas Stars became the first team since the 1994 New York Rangers to win both the President's Trophy and the Stanley Cup in the same season. In addition, Lance Armstrong overcame a bout with cancer to win his first Tour de France.

Mia Hamm and Brandi Chastain lead the team in a 5-4 narrow, penalty-kick victory over China to win the Women's World Cup.

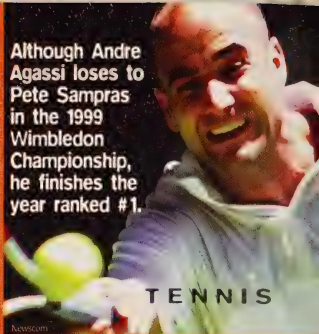

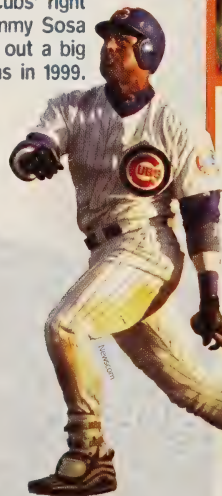

Tiger Woods' PGA Tour winning streak comes to an end when he is beaten at the Buick Invitational.

Quarterback Kurt Warner leads the Rams to a 23-16 victory over the Tennessee Titans in Super Bowl XXXIV.

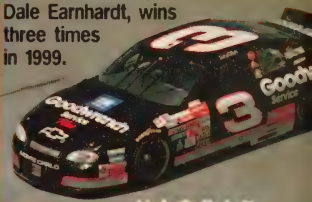

Chicago Cubs' right fielder Sammy Sosa hammered out a big 63 homeruns in 1999.

Although Andre Agassi loses to Pete Sampras in the 1999 Wimbledon Championship, he finishes the year ranked #1.

Sports legends Walter Payton, Joe DiMaggio and Tom Landry also left us this year.

Ex-Menudo vocalist Ricky Martin wows audiences with his first English album, and actress/singer Jennifer Lopez scores big with her own first album, "On the 6." The biggest success story of the year, however, is former Mouseketeer Britney Spears' meteoric rise to fame via her debut LP "...Baby One More Time."

These cool cowgirls continue to enjoy the success of their breakthrough album "Wide Open Spaces."
